If any of our subscribers have a copy of the COURIER of Jan. 9th, 1880, with which they will part, they will confer a great favor by leaving the same at this office, as that issue is missing from our files.

Last week post office orders were received at the COURIER office from thirty-two different states by Dr. Chase's Recipe Book, and one application for an agency from the Grand Duchy of Hesse, in Prussia, and this is but little in advance of the average week.

Robt. L. Speechley, who lives about two and one-half miles east of this city, showed us two young meadow larks which he found in his wheat field Wednesday morning last. They were nearly half-grown, and would have left the nest in a few days. How is that for early birds?

Had it not been for the presence of mind of Chas. M. Jones and John Schumacher in stopping the stampede from the opera house last Tuesday night, when the fire alarm sounded, there would undoubtedly have been serious consequences. It was a pretty close call.

Last week we noticed the fact that John Geo. Laubenger had appealed his sentence of 20 days in jail for drunkenness, to the circuit court. Pending the hearing in this court he again incurred the freet of the intoxicating fluid, was taken before Justice Freunau and fined $15 and costs.

A charming centennial service will be held at the Unitarian church a week from next Sunday evening, in commemoration of the one hundredth birthday of Dr. William Ellery Channing. Six or eight well-known speakers from our own city and from abroad will deliver brief addresses.

The cross-street lamps of the city are all being converted into gasolene lamps, according to a contract entered into some time since by the council. The Belden gasolene process will hereafter be employed, and it is to be hoped that a better light will be produced, and better satisfaction given.

This "cooking club" business which is "all the rage" just at present, looks to us pretty thin, as the saying goes. If a young lady really desires to learn the culinary art and kitchen mysteries, the most practical lesson she can get will be in her mother's kitchen. There will be no great trouble in finding plenty to do there.

At the Republican city convention held at the court house last evening, the following nominations were made:

We have been shown by Lorenzo Davis, and old $5.00 bill on the Bank of Saline, dated Jan. 1st, 1838. The name of S. T. Rich appears as President, with W. Cumant as cashier. The capital is given at $100,000, pledged by real estate. It is a valuable relic of the old wild cat days, and as such highly prized by the owner.

Mr. Hayes, the law student, who caused the "unpleasantness" at the recent law commencement, says he was the victim of an attempt at blackmail and persecution from parties to whom he had loaned amounts to the extent of some $250. He asked them to return the money and they "put up a job on him" for his generosity. That is his story as given your reporter.

Mr. A. L. Noble has just completed the purchase of a handsome building lot on Division street, the same comprising four and one-half rods front off the south side of H. D. Bennett's lot, and a portion of a lot in the rear bought of the John West estate, giving him fourteen rods in depth, and costing $1,800. Sometime in the future we hope to see Mr. Noble residing in a fine house upon this lot.

Clark, David Wiley, N. H. Carpenter and H. D. Platt.

The question having been asked by those not moving in the more active business circles, "who is Nelson Sutherland, the candidate for alderman on the Republican ticket in the 3d ward?" we would simply state, that he is a gentleman born and raised in Washtenaw county. He purchased the Paul place, on Spring street, some two years ago, and has resided there since. He is now and always has been a Republican of stalwart stripe, an active and energetic business man, and one whom we doubt not, if elected, will be an honor to our council, and a credit to himself, his party, and the ward he represents.

In 1873 a party of seven young men of this city, consisting of George Braithwaite, Wm. Clute, Oscar Tucker, Geo. L. Moore, L. S. Lerch, C. L. Ludlow and Arthur L. Worden, pledged themselves to present each one of their number with a handsome present, upon their marriage. Seven years have passed and seven presents have been purchased by these seven gentlemen, they all being married, in the order given above. The first, Geo. Braithwaite—who has since died—was given a silver tea set, but the others were given silver water sets. Dr. Worden was the last of the seven. It will be noticed that assessments averaged yearly.

The Republicans of Ann Arbor town have nominated the following ticket: Isaac N. S. Foster, for supervisor; Lorenzo Davis, clerk; Jas. G. Rash, treasurer; Henry K. White, commissioner of highways; John C. Bird, Justice of the peace; Warren A. Millard, superintendent of schools; Evert H. Scott, school inspector; Chauncey H. Orcutt, Orlando Lathrop, Christian Braun, Thos. W. Howard, constables. The vote for supervisor stood, for Foster 46; for John C. Mead 8; James G. Rasch and H. K. White, each 1.

The Ann Arbor township Republican committee consists of John O. Mead, S. W. Shurtleff and Jeremiah Williams.

The following resolutions pertinent to the death of William H. Hall, member of the medical department, class of '81, have been passed by his class:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father, who governs all earthly things with more than human mind, to remove from among us one who was eminently good and true, and whose death is a loss to his family, his friends, his country, and his world; and WHEREAS, Some tribute to the memory of our fellow-student and some token of sympathy to his bereaved friends is a duty which we, his classmates, feel it our duty to perform; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the demise of our friend and classmate, Wm. H. HALL, we lose a man of noble character, a genial manner, and a pleasing address, and takes with him as a life companion one of Ann Arbor's most estimable ladies. We shall expect him to do well in his new field of labor, both on account of his high qualifications and his ability to gain the friendship and confidence of all with whom he is brought in contact.

Resolved, That as a last act of kindness and respect to the deceased, a delegation from the medical department attend the body to the grave.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the family of the deceased, and also that they be sent to the city papers for publication.

L. C. GRAVES, C. A. BARBOUR, D. N. DETAR, Secy.

At the earnest solicitation of numerous interested parties the chief engineer of the fire department is to connect the 5th ward engine house and fireman's hall with telegraphic communication. The necessity for this is great and the instances numerous when such communication would be extremely beneficial. As a recent instance the fire alarm Monday night may be cited, when the Mineral Springs house burned. This alarm was not heard at the 5th ward engine house, the Republican ward caucus being at the time in session there. It will also be the means of saving the lower town boys many a run from a false alarm or small blaze, and in numerous and various ways, so many that enumeration is not necessary, be of advantage and convenience. It is an improvement greatly needed, and the only wonder is that it has never been done before.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Tuesday last, and the following officers elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. O. B. Schuyler; Vice-President, Mrs. Mary Thompson; Recording Secretary, Mrs. R. E. Frazer; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. F. Bishop; Treasurer, Mrs. M. J. Dager. A proposition received from Susan B. Anthony to send speakers here from the Woman's Suffrage Convention, to speak under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. was unanimously rejected. The report for the last year showed that fifty-seven meetings had been held, three petitions sent out; three entertainments given; several cases of suffering relieved, and some tracts distributed. The Union has sent delegates to six conventions during the year, one having been held in Ann Arbor. Number of paying members about 110. Number of signatures to the pledge during the year, 202.

Readers of the COURIER will recollect an account published in the issue of Sept. 19th, respecting Rev. L. B. Gurley, of Delaware, Ohio, who preached to the Methodist people of this city fifty years previous. This aged laborer in the Saviour's vineyard was called to his reward one week ago today, at the ripe old age of 76 years. For the past four or five years he had sustained a superannuated relation to the Central Ohio Conference. When twenty-five years of age he came to Michigan and for quite a period of time acted as circuit rider for this circuit, which at that time included some thirty charges, extending from Detroit to Dexter. In his visit to this city at the time of the M. E. Conference last September, he failed to find a soul who had worshipped in the church when he was pastor, so great are the changes time has wrought. He has been a faithful follower and expounder of Divine teachings, and his reward will be commensurate with his untiring labors.

Personal Notes.

H. W. Sanford, of Ypsilanti, called at the COURIER office, last Wednesday, and left an "ad." for the paper which will be found in another column.

Dr. Brown, of the Presbyterian church of this city, has gone to Kentucky to be absent some two weeks, upon invitation of a congregation in that State.

Harry B. Hutchins and wife of Mt. Clemens, Eugene H. Hutchins and family, of Owosso, and Mrs. Belle Fleming, of Cincinnati, attended the marriage of their sister Carrie E., on Tuesday evening of this week.

Dan. F. Danforth, of Kansas City, Mo., Geo. Danforth, of N. Y. city, Mrs. Jewett Baxter, of Chicago, and Mrs. Ed. May, of Buffalo, N. Y., children of Mrs. Geo. Danforth, are in the city, called here by the serious illness of their mother.

Hymeneal.

The marriage of Dr. Arthur L. Worden and Miss Carrie E. Hutchins, both of this city, on Tuesday evening, was a very pleasant occasion, both the bride and groom being well known in the city, and general favorites. But few invitations, except to relatives, were given, but the expression of good will through the medium of presents, indicated the high esteem in which the parties were held.

The ladies of the M. E. church, where the bride had for several years been a member of the choir, presented them with a handsome silver tea-set; a club of seven young men gave a silver water-set; members of the M. E. church choir gave two beautifully framed steel engravings; while silver butter dishes, dinner and tea casters, pickle casters, sugar, tea, cream, and table spoons, but knives, vases, etc., from friends and relatives made an array which but few young couples are sufficiently fortunate to receive upon like occasion.

And last, but of great importance, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Worden, parents of the groom, gave the couple a car load of elegant furniture, which we understand they are to make immediate use of in household.

The city band serenaded the wedding party previous to their departure on the 9:38 train west. They go to Dunlap, Iowa, about fifty miles east of Council Bluffs, where the Dr. will immediately enter upon the practice of his profession.

The Dr. was a graduate of the medical department in the class of '79, and while in the University ranked well as a student. Since graduation he has been practicing medicine in this city and acting as assistant to Prof. Maclean. In this latter capacity he has had an opportunity which is seldom enjoyed by the young practitioner of becoming practically familiar with disease and surgical operations. This was an opportunity which he seized upon and used with the greatest profit. He has thus accumulated at the very outset of his career, an amount of information and experience which others only learn, if at all, after many years of practice. As an indication of the estimation which his teacher placed upon his ability may be instanced the fact that Dr. Maclean selected him as the one to whom he should entrust his private and hospital patients during his last summer's absence.

Dr. Worden is a young man of excellent character, genial manners, and pleasing address, and takes with him as a life companion one of Ann Arbor's most estimable ladies. We shall expect him to do well in his new field of labor, both on account of his high qualifications and his ability to gain the friendship and confidence of all with whom he is brought in contact.

ANN ARBOR BLAZES.

Four Fires on Three Successive Nights.

The Mineral Springs House—A Barn—And a Residence Destroyed, and the Earl Cook Scalded.

This week, so far, has been a lively one for the boys who "run with the machine," as it is still the custom in this place. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, at about 8 o'clock or a trifle later, fires have broken out in various parts of the city, and on the last mentioned date an additional alarm, at about 10 o'clock, called for double work from the already tired out workers. The record opens with the BURNING OF MINERAL SPRINGS HOUSE.

Monday night, at about 8 o'clock, just as the good Republican workers had finished business in the various ward caucuses of the city, the fire bell sounded an alarm for the third ward. The usual large crowd, following the engines, wended its way to the Mineral Springs House, on Mann street, the roof of which was then in flames. The delay in obtaining water was so great that the flames, though spreading slowly for a wooden structure, got beyond the power of the extinguishing facilities, and the firemen, by work almost incredible, were only enabled to save from destruction the engines, boilers, and heating apparatus, contained in an addition to the south end of the structure. For this excellent piece of work they deserve great praise.

This building was erected in 1871, by Messrs. Sutherland & Wheeler, of this city, as a sanitarium or water cure, because of the medicinal properties of the springs in the vicinity. The original cost was some $20,000 and upwards, but for some reason it has never been a profitable investment. The structure was plain, but still a fine one, being three stories in height with basement, and having a frontage of 104 feet on Mann street. Every room in the building was nicely carpeted and furnished, and the grounds had been recently graded and improved.

Several changes in proprietorship have been made since its erection. Dr. Ha'lo was the first successor to Sutherland & Wheeler, and was followed by Dr. Cleland, who gave place to Dr. Russell. Some two years since Drs. Calvert & Gatchell—the former of Jackson, the latter then a professor in the university—bought the place, and were the owners at the time of the fire.

No one was living in the House, but it had been customary to heat up Saturdays for the purpose of giving baths which were quite popular with some of our people. No fire had been in the building since Saturday, but the conflagration must have resulted from a defective flue. Most of the furniture was saved, but of course considerably damaged. The owners were neither of them in the city, Dr. Calvert being in Jackson, and Dr. Gatchell living in Milwaukee.

The loss is estimated by competent judges at $5,000 to $10,000, and the insurance amounted to $3,000. The building will probably never be rebuilt, and is certainly a great loss not only to that portion of the city, but to the entire community.

CONFAGRATION, NO. 2.

Tuesday evening another fire brought out the fire companies. This time it was in the old block south of the opera house, known to fame as the Earl Cook. The fire was in the third story, of the south side, in rooms occupied by A. Ferguson, as living apartments, and undoubtedly caught from a defective flue, the chimney being in a very bad condition where the fire originated. The household furniture in this apartment was seriously damaged by water, fire, and smoke. Mr. Ferguson had a policy of $200 upon the same, and also a policy of $200 upon the stock of goods in his custody store below, which will probably cover his loss.

Franklin L. Parker, who owns the south half of the building, had an office directly under these rooms. His papers and books were damaged considerably by water and by being scattered about. The building was insured for $1,000; damage slight. In fact, from appearances inside, it would be difficult to detect a fire.

WEINMAN'S BARN.

Wednesday afternoon, at about 5 o'clock Michael Weinman discovered an incipient fire in his barn, located in the rear of his meat market, corner of Washington and Fifth streets. The fire had originated on the ground floor, near the horses, three in number, which he first succeeded in removing, and afterward extinguished the flames without calling out the fire department.

Later in the evening, at 8 o'clock, the barn was again found to be on fire, this time in the loft where the hay is stored, and had made considerable headway before it was discovered. The fire department came out in a hurry, and the barn still stands, though somewhat scorched, an advertisement of what can be accomplished by the use of fire insurance to cover. At about 10 o'clock the SECOND ALARM SOUNDED.

This time it was caused by a fire in the dwelling of John Slater—of the firm of Slater & Keesch, 115 1/2 West Washington street, which had been unoccupied for several weeks, and quite extensive repairs had been recently completed by carpenters and masons. The building was completely destroyed. Loss estimated at $1,700, insured for $300. The origin of the last two fires can be accounted for only by incendiarism. While the two former may have arisen from defective flues, there is strong suspicion that they were set on fire by some incendiary. If any one should happen to be caught at the business, we wouldn't place much value upon his future earthly happiness.

An attempt was made to fire the building of William B. Smith, at the corner of Washington street. A clapboard was pulled off on the east side, shavings and kerosene poured in and lighted, but the blaze was seen before any material damage was done. This last attempt was made on Thursday evening, about the usual hour.

About Our Streets.

Dear Courier—I will thank you for sufficient space to make a few suggestions about our streets. I think I can force the time, when our annual practice of adding a few inches of gravel to the road bed will make a sufficient improvement. Many people are already complaining that the present elevation along their premises, is seriously objectionable; therefore, the practical question is, as to what can be done to keep a good road bed without objectionable elevations. During all the time of my residence here, I have been surprised to see the mud and worn out material of the gutters, thrown back on to the road, as has been mostly done in this city. This material makes dust in dry weather and mud when it rains, but at no time does it make a good road, yet it adds its bulk to objectionable elevations of the streets.

These being facts, will it not be wise to carefully collect, and cast away all surplus material from the road bed, and cut enough from the gutters, to throw back on to the bed the material of building up the center? During a dry time large quantities of dust may be put in piles by a road scraper, and advantageously carted away. There are several ways in which this material may be used for grass lands, gardens, etc. The campus ought to have thousands of loads. I do not say this in any spirit of flattery, but merely to suggest a remedy for the gutters, and the material of the road bed with its mud and dust, under our present system of street repairs. Hoping, if these suggestions do not seem practicable, they will call out a better remedy. I am, Respectfully, etc.

DEED.

CHURCH—in Saline, March 27th, 1880. ZALMON WOODRUFF, of Ann Arbor, died on the 27th of March, 1880, at the residence of Mrs. Mary E. Foster, in this city, at the residence of Mrs. Mary E. Foster, at the hour of eight o'clock, Mr. H. and Miss K. were united in holy wedlock by Rev. Mr. Alabaster.

MARRIED.

Mr. William J. Howard, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, England, and Miss Mand Cook, of this city, were united in marriage on the evening of the 24th of March, at the residence of Mrs. Mary E. Foster, on West Catherine street. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. H. was engaged for several years in giving instruction in the art of elocution in Canada, as also in our city, and various portions of our State. During her residence in Ann Arbor she has formed many strong friendships, and has become known very favorably to our citizens in general, as a lady of talent and worth of character. During the last two years she has been a student in the law department of the University, from which she graduated at the last commencement. Mr. H. came from England to St. Thomas, Canada, a few years since, in which place he has been engaged in Journalism. He is a gentleman of culture and ability. On the evening before mentioned, a goodly number of ladies and gentlemen were assembled at the home of Mrs. Foster, where, at the hour of eight o'clock, Mr. H. and Miss K. were united in holy wedlock by Rev. Mr. Alabaster. A very happy occasion passed, and at a late hour the company left for their homes with the hearty wishes that the pathway of life for the bride and groom might be forever one of great felicity. G. N. MARRIED.

Mr. William J. Howard, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, England, and Miss Mand Cook, of this city, were united in marriage on the evening of the 24th of March, at the residence of Mrs. Mary E. Foster, on West Catherine street. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. H. was engaged for several years in giving instruction in the art of elocution in Canada, as also in our city, and various portions of our State. During her residence in Ann Arbor she has formed many strong friendships, and has become known very favorably to our citizens in general, as a lady of talent and worth of character. During the last two years she has been a student in the law department of the University, from which she graduated at the last commencement. Mr. H. came from England to St. Thomas, Canada, a few years since, in which place he has been engaged in Journalism. He is a gentleman of culture and ability. On the evening before mentioned, a goodly number of ladies and gentlemen were assembled at the home of Mrs. Foster, where, at the hour of eight o'clock, Mr. H. and Miss K. were united in holy wedlock by Rev. Mr. Alabaster. A very happy occasion passed, and at a late hour the company left for their homes with the hearty wishes that the pathway of life for the bride and groom might be forever one of great felicity. G. N. I have a good FLOURING MILL of four run of stone, that will sell or exchange for property in Washtenaw County.

NOTICE.

To avoid imposition, purchasers of Waltham Watches will observe that every genuine watch, whether gold or silver, bears our trade-mark on both case and movement.

Watches are stamped "A. W. Co." and guarantee certificates accompanying them. Silver cases are stamped "Am. Watch Co., Waltham, Mass., Sterling Silver," and are accompanied by guarantee certificates, signed by R. E. Robbins, Treasurer. The name "Waltham" is plainly engraved upon all movements, irrespective of other distinguishing marks.

This caution is rendered necessary by reason of the fact that the Waltham cases are frequently appropriated from their movements, and put upon worthless movements of other makers, and vice versa, thus affecting injuriously the performance of all movements, irrespective of their quality, which is intended to cover only the complete watches wholly made by the Waltham Company. It is necessary, also, because it is so notorious as to be a public scandal, that there is great fraud in the metal quality of both gold and silver cases as now generally sold. We have demonstrated by frequent essays that many gold and silver cases offered in the market, are debased from 10 to 20 per cent, from the quality they assume to be. This is a fraud upon the purchaser, and accounts for the low prices at which such cases are sold.

AM. WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.

The genuine Watches of the American Watch Co., of Waltham (cases as well as movements), are offered in great variety and at lowest prices by their agents,

M. S. SMITH & CO., Jewelers, 302 West Third and Jefferson Ave., Detroit.

Catarrhal

HOESER

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh explains the following important facts:

- 1. That Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membrane, at first local, and finally constitutional.
2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.
3. That impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.
4. That Catarrh virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Catarrhs, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bronchitis, Leucorrhoea, and Consumption.
5. That Smokes, Coughs, Inhalations, and Inoculation of the virus, cannot produce infectious inflammation from the organs named.
6. That an individual Catarrh must possess an involutionary affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the parietal mucous membrane located there.
