

che-nille (she-nēl) n. A tufted cord, used for embroidery, fringes, etc.; also, a fabric made with a filling of this cord.

sis-ters (sis-ters) n. Those women who share a friendship, outlook or vision collectively.

che-nille sisters 1. Connie Huber, Cheryl Dawdy, Grace Morand, with unpredictable and often campy arrangements of delicious three part harmonies. 2. Very snazzy. 3. Don't miss them. 4. They're gonna be famous.

OLD TOWN

Liberty & Ashley

Thursdays 5:30-7:30

No Cover Charge